COL. WASH JOHNSTON and Postmaster L. S. Ebright, as members of the Committee on Resolutions, wrote the famous plank in last year's Republican platform demanding a reduction of the exorbitant fees and salaries paid Summit county's officers. No wonder Senator Alexander was undone. With two such uncompromising advocates of reform and lower salaries (for the other fellows) as Johnston and Ebright writing the resolutions, what was there for Park to do but believe that the salary reduction plank meant semething, every word of it?
